It contains an appropriation of swenty-five thousand dollar to complete the Marine Hospital, and fifty thousand for a Custom House and Post-Office in the city. On Saturday night the Senate reconsidered their vote sustaining the veto of the Des Moines Rapids bill, and finally passed it by a two-thirds vote. Show of the National Admictateal Society at Chicago in 1856.—The Prairie Farmer, published in this city, agitates the subject of holding the show of the National Agricultural Society in this city. We copy from it had tissue the following; in relation to the matter:—"Shall the show of the National Agricultural Society be held at Chicago next year? This is a question that perhaps few have thought of, yet it is one which we may entertain with the happy and almost certain expectancy of a realization. All the circumstances which govern in such cases are in our favor. The first and most important consideration of all is, we consect by stein with reveryeders, and are accessible to corrybody.—Second. we have roote enough to shelter and food to mustain all who will come. Third, we may have as good as show ground as can be found anywhere—Pourth, taking in Otto and Kentacky, the west includes a large ratio of intelligent breeders of stock, and a vast number of choice astimals. Fifth, we have the wealth, and what is better, the will to bestow if—on objects which will foster the public good—which will nurse and cherish public institutions.—The liberatity of our people is proverball; but that does not accessed their hospitality and brotherly kind mess. Chicago well subscribe the money necessary is half a slop! What more than the can be asked for or wanted.
